

2024 August Conference

Registration for Texas College of Probate Judges conferences is open for only one conference at a time, but we publicize the dates and hotels for upcoming meetings so you can make plans and hotel reservations. As outlined below, we have one remaining conference planned for 2024 in addition to our May Workshop in Corpus Christi.

Our conference hotels are popular, and the locations draw tourists throughout the year. If you wish to attend a particular program, you may want to call soon and make your hotel reservations.

You'll need to wait for conference registration, however. We don't take conference registrations until we send out letters, agendas, and registration forms about 8 weeks before each conference.
